

For additional student resources visit:

www.StudentLoanNetwork.com/Resources

Free Resources and Services for Students

In addition to our line of education financing products, the Student Loan Network offers valuable resources for students and their families to navigate the complex world of student financial aid.

Financial Aid 101 - This valuable resource on StudentLoanNetwork.com provides information on the entire financial aid process.

eBooks - Student Loan Network regularly publishes free eBooks on topics that matter to students. Recent titles include: Scholarship Search Secrets; FAFSA Guide and How to Write a Killer Cover Letter.

FAFSAOnline.com - Free tips and a step-by-step guide to filling out the FAFSA plus ways to maximize your financial aid.

StudentScholarshipSearch.com - A free scholarship search tool that provides access to thousands of scholarship listings, with no personal information submission required.

FinancialAidForum.com - A forum where students and parents can gather to ask questions and get answers about the financial aid process in a timely fashion from industry professionals.

ScholarshipPoints.com - A free service that gives away monthly scholarships to students who earn points by logging in, referring friends and completing surveys.

FinancialAidNews.com - A monthly newsletter for students, families and financial aid professionals that provides valuable news and information on higher education issues, financial aid trends and federal regulations.

HowToGetIn.com - A comprehensive guide with tips on how to get into college, and student action plans that help students prepare for the college admissions process.

GraduateCenter.com - College graduates are faced with a multitude of important decisions. Graduate Center provides free guidance and resources for grad school, careers and financial services.

CampusX.com - CampusX is a social network for high school and college students that offers advice, educational resources and services to help them succeed in college financially, socially and personally.

StudentPlatinum.com - By providing credit education, credit help, and financial resources, we help students understand credit and avoid credit problems.

FinancialAidPodcast.com - Our award-winning daily Podcast delivers timely financial aid, scholarship, student loan, career, and personal finance information in about 15 minutes every day.

Entrance and Exit Counseling - StudentLoanNetwork.com gives students the opportunity to perform entrance and exit counseling.

Customer Service - Accessible via email, phone, or our numerous financial aid related blogs, our seasoned customer service team provides students, families and higher education institutions with quick answers to complex questions.